1.

What does International Women's Day mean to you?

"It is a day celebrating the achievements and contributions of women throughout history and raising awareness of women's issues in the present day. The day itself serves as a catalyst to promote women's rights in areas they may still not be recognised, while providing an opportunity to inspire future generations."

2.

What is it like to be a female in a male dominated industry?

“It can present challenges at times, but challenges turn into opportunities to showcase resilience, breaking barriers and contribution to a male dominant society. I personally love it.”

3.

Which women inspire you the most?

“Marie Curie dedicated her life to science, along with her husband, discovering radioactivity which still saves lives today, an amazing legacy and showcases that men and women can be a power combination together.”

4.

What is your proudest achievement?

“Cycling 75 miles around the Mourne Coastal Route for a club 75th anniversary.”
